8:31 AM Dan: I think that if you really think that Stacy's a white supremacist, maybe you ought to make that case based on something other than innuendo and that post about teen pregnancy. For example, there's a comment from Timb in there. Now, I don't know much about American Renaissance, but I don't care much for what I saw. You might want to email Stacy and ask him what he was thinking.
8:34 AM me: I don't have his e-mail address, unfortunately 8:35 AM and he's only addressed me so far in PW comments
8:36 AM I'll take a look at American Renaissance, though Thanks
oh, shit
THAT American Renaissance
